

REPORT OF THE GLOBALEX MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE FOR JUNE 2019

The Globalex management committee met by Zoom on 13 June 2019 (16:00 CEST), with Ed Finegan, Ilan Kernerman, Simon Krek, Dion Nkomo, and Lars Trap-Jensen in attendance. This Report constitutes a summary of the discussion.*

Slides from the Globalex Workshop on Lexicography and Neologisms, held in conjunction with the DSNA biennial meeting in Bloomington, Indiana, have been added to the Globalex website. The mounting of searchable issues of the journal Lexicon on the Globalex website is progressing, and other publications are being added to the website, including links to articles published in two Nordic journals.

Several themes for future workshops were identified, including neologism in languages other than those addressed in Bloomington, “controversial words,” “linking dictionaries,” and “lexicography and semantics.” Possible conferences for future Globalex workshops include LREC, ACL, and the Language, Data and Knowledge conference.

A sad note: Deny Kwary, an active member of Asialex, passed away in early June.

* The management committee keeps minutes of its meetings; this summary Report serves to inform the Continental Associations, which are urged to share the reports with their members.
